My dear Mr.Prabhakar,

Let me congratulate and thank you for the marvellous work, which you have been doing over the years for educating and informing the employers about the new developments in the employment law through your association. Verily, this is a commendable job.

It is my pleasure and honour that you keep on sending me the circulars, which you have been issuing some time to time for the benefit of the employers of the Karnataka. You must have noticed that we have been amplifying your circulars by preparing the reports on their basis and publishing them in the 'Labour Law Reporters.The Labour Law Reporter can justifiably take the credit that it has been collaborating with you in your awareness campaign among the employers of the country.

I consider it my bounden duty to bring it to the notice of the present Union Labour Minister Shri Bandaru Dattatreya with the outstanding and remarkable service that is being rendered by you and I hope you will kindly permit me for the same. It would not be an exaggeration to say that in spite of the huge paraphernalia, what the government machinery has not been able to accomplish and achieve, you and your association are doing it with limited resources.

I cannot but thank you and convey my appreciations again for your outstanding work.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

H.L. Kumar
