To:

Sri Santosh Lad

The Hon'ble Minister for Labour
Government of Karnataka
Bengaluru

Respected Sir,

On behalf of Karnataka Employers Association and on my own behalf, I heartily congratulate your good-self on assumption of the office as Minister for Labour, Government of Karnataka.

Having already served as Minister for Labour, your experience as well as hands on approach will surely bring dynamism to the Ministry which is much needed for Karnataka.

We, from Karnataka Employers Association would like to call on your good self in order to acquaint you with our activities as well as discuss important issues facing our state with regard to labour relations as well as ease of doing business.

We humbly request your good-self to grant us an early appointment for which we shall be highly obliged.
