To,

Dr. H N Gopal Krishna IAS,
Commissioner of Labour
Government of Karnataka
Bengaluru

Dear Sir,

Karnataka Employers' Association (KEA) is one of the oldest and largest Associations in Karnataka, established in March 1962. KEA celebrated its Diamond Jubilee last year and has over 750 members from all sectors in the State. The membership of the Association consists of the large, medium, and small establishments in both Private and Public Sector Industries in Manufacturing, Real Estate, Construction, IT, ITES BPO, Biotech, Commercial and Services Establishments including Educational Institutions. KEA has been in the forefront of fostering harmonious relationships between employers and employees and their Trade Unions. KEA has been on the Advisory Board of several Government committees such as the EPF, ESI, Contract Labour, Minimum Wages etc.

We are pleased to learn about your appointment as the Commissioner of Labour, Government of Karnataka with immediate effect. On behalf of all Employer Members, we congratulate you on taking over the responsibilities for the coveted position.

We sincerely hope that with your stewardship the Department of Labour will also drive the initiatives towards establishing a healthy and inspiring working environment in the industrial sector.

We at Karnataka Employers' Association look forward to your positive direction and pragmatic guidance, which will harness smooth and faster development in the industrial sector and catalyse the much-needed growth in our State.

We wholeheartedly welcome and assure you and your team our earnest cooperation for furthering the cause of industrial progress and good employer and employee relationship. We look forward to having an interactive meeting at your convenience.

With Best Regards,

For Karnataka Employers' Association
